Look for Free Newspapers

The New York Times and USA Today will be available at various locations around campus, including the Honors House, from Jan 28 – Feb 22. Discussion programs will take place each week on Tuesdays at noon. Honors will be hosting one on Tuesday the 29th. Join Dr. Zaniello for a discussion about recent articles on immigration and human rights in the student lounge!

Honorably Generous

HNR 308-001, The Arts for Social Change chose to award $1,500.00 to each of the three organizations listed below. Each organization presented proposals for both smaller and larger amounts. These three organizations were selected from the total of five that were "brought to the table" from a pool of several hundred possibilities.

- Elementz "a Place for Hip-Hop and Respect," Cincinnati, OH
- The Frank Duveneck Arts & Cultural Center, Covington, KY
- Children's Performing Arts of Lakota, Inc., West Chester, OH
