The Freshman Service Leadership Committee is ready for the next Service on Saturday on April 14. This is NKU’s day of service in the community. Four hours of your time can make a huge difference in the community! Here is how the event works. All participants meet in the University Center Cafeteria at 10 a.m. We will have breakfast, give out t-shirts and then head to the service sites. Students then stay at their site until 2 p.m.—earlier if the project is completed. Here is the list of sites for the event:

Campbell Lodge Boys Home (Cold Spring)-10-20 volunteers to help with clearing trails and painting fences.

City of Highland Heights (on Johns Hill)-need 30-40 volunteers to help members of the council paint and do yard work around the city building.

Madonna House of NKY-7-13 volunteers to help mulch and prep their garden

To sign up, please e-mail Tiffany Mayse at mayset@nku.edu. Please send the location that you would like to serve at and your t-shirt size.

REC Camp Counselor’s Wanted

Do you like working with children? The Department of Campus Recreation is now looking for camp counselors for the REC Summer Camp. There are 5 one-week camp sessions offered this summer. To apply, go to <https://jobs.nku.edu> and click on REC Camp Counselor Posting. For more camp information, email Jill Kleiser at kleiserj@nku.edu

Get the dirt on Summer fun!

Are you looking for adventure and excitement?

Do you like to travel, camp, and play in the dirt?

Are you the next Indiana Jones?

Then perhaps you should join a group of NKU students to experience the thrill (and the windstorms) of digging for dinosaurs in central Utah! Okay, Indiana Jones was an archaeologist (not a very professional one) not a paleontologist, but you get the point.
