

The HoHoSeMo

A semimonthly news update of the NKU Honors Program
April 15, 2007

IMPORTANT DATES AND NOTICES: Mark your calendars!

“Life After HoHo” Workshops—The Final Installment on April 17th

- 2:00-3:00 pm. Graduate School, how to apply and how to finance it.
- 6:00 pm. Honors Alumni Panel

Final CoHo of the year! Thursday, April 19th, 6:00 pm

- Come feast upon cheese coney served up to you by our very own celebrity chef, Dr. Z!
- Bring something to share. ASH will provide drinks.
- Enjoy performances by your peers. And let them enjoy a performance by you!
- Finally beat out your frustrations, constructively, musically, and oh so rhythmically in the Thank God It's the End of the Semester drum circle

Coming Summer 2007 – Honors Courses outside!

Two courses are being offered this summer a “Sense of Place” and “How Does Your Garden Grow”. Both give you a chance to enjoy and contribute to the beauty of the honors grounds...FOR CREDIT!!! Check out your pink book or the website www.nku.edu/~honorsprgm/ for course descriptions.

*HoHoSeMo is assembled and edited by Rees Storm, HoHoSeMoCo, on the 15th and the 30th of every month.
Please contact her with questions regarding this publication at stormr@nku.edu.*