

The HoHoSeMo

A semimonthly news update of the NKU Honors Program
August 30, 2007

IMPORTANT DATES AND NOTICES: Mark your calendars!

---

First Monthly Honors House Coffee House (HoHoCoHo)

Thursday, September 13, 6:00 pm at the HoHo.
Polish up those acts! Contact Ali Godel, godela1@nku.edu, for more information.

Education Is the Key to Overcoming Prejudice – Contest Opportunity

NKU Honors Program and the Office of Latino Student Affairs would like to invite all NKU students to address the theme “Education is the key to overcoming prejudice” in a visual way. Students responding to this year’s contest should study the work of Edward James Olmos, and then submit a visual response to the Honors House by September 13. Movie posters, paintings, drawings, films and digital work will be accepted. A selection committee will review the entries and select five finalists. The five finalists will be invited to an informal reception with Mr. Olmos and will receive a $100 gift each. For more information visit the website of the office of Latino Student Affairs or call the Honors Program at 572-5634.

Edward James Olmos, Award-Winning Hispanic American Actor, Producer, and Civic Activist

Thursday, September 27, 12:00 p.m. - 1:15 p.m.
Greaves Concert Hall
In his presentation, We're All in the Same Gang, Olmos tells his audiences the inspiring story of how he survived the barrio and succeeded on his own terms by making his own choices. Emphasizing the need for all races to work together, he explains how diversity in our society can work to our advantage.

Honors All-Program Meeting

Monday, October 22, 3:15-5:00 pm in BEP 200.
Required information delivered at this meeting, including spring course descriptions. Put it on your calendar!

Capstone Presentations

Thursday, November 29, 2:00-6:00 pm in BEP 200
Friday, November 30, 2:00-5:00 pm in Budig Theatre

Twenty-five of your fellow honors students will be presenting their capstone projects over these two fall days. Their topics and majors are intriguing and varied. A schedule of presentations will be published closer to the date. Come out, support them, and learn something new!
