

The HoHoSeMo

A semimonthly news update of the NKU Honors Program
November 15, 2007

IMPORTANT DATES AND NOTICES: Mark your calendars!

Know the HoHo. Love the HoHo. Respect the HoHo!

Please watch the noise level of the scintillating conversations around the HoHo, particularly when classes are in session.

Also, be advised...your mother doesn't live here – or your nanny or your dog (sorry, Indy is not YOUR dog). Clean up your own mess! (Thanks to the kitchen crew who has been keeping the kitchen tidy!)

Pennies from the HoHo!

The ASH-Sponsored Honors 101 Penny War is going strong! It ends on the 30th of November and all proceeds will go to the Free Store Food Bank, a local hunger-fighting organization! The winning 101 class will receive a pizza party, so don't forget to bring all of your copper change, silver change, and dollars to get the edge over your classmates!

Go to www.freestorefoodbank.org for more information on who they are and what they do. Contact Mary Kleemeier at onna_otaku_86@hotmail.com or Laura Baker at bakerl3@nku.edu for more information.

Capstone Presentations

- Thursday, November 29, 2:00-5:00 pm in BEP 200
- Friday, November 30, 2:00-5:00 pm in Budig Theatre

Twenty of your fellow honors students will be presenting their capstone projects over these two fall days. Their topics and majors are intriguing and varied. A schedule of presentations will be published closer to the date. Come out, support them, and learn something new!

HoHoHo! Another Coho on the 6th of December! Guess what the theme will be!

More Money!

NKU Scholarship Deadline February 1st. Go to www.nku.edu/~ofa for the online application.

Get Outta Here!

We encourage honors students to travel – in two rewarding ways!

ONE: Many study abroad experiences involve a credit option. Study Abroad credits WILL COUNT towards your Honors Minor in most cases!

TWO: We are announcing a new scholarship opportunity for the fall semester (Winter Break, Winter Session and Spring Break) to help students fund study abroad.

Honors Travel Scholarship!

Name _____
Address _____

Phone number _____
Email address _____
Major _____
GPA _____ Number of credit hours completed _____
Honors courses completed _____
Number of currently enrolled credit hours _____
Type a statement summarizing how the award for travel will further your academic goals.

Email Belle Zembrodt zembrodt@nku.edu at the Honors House with a complete facsimile of the information requested above. The deadline is December 1.

NB: We'll have another scholarship round for summer 08 and fall 08 travel. Tentative deadline February 1st.

Speaking of...Deadlines are approaching!

Two opportunities to go to Mexico during NKU's Spring Break March 8-16!

- ASB Community Service Trip to Mexico City and Tepoztlan. December 1 application deadline. Contact Amye Day in the Office of International Programs at x6908 or daya3@nku.edu for application, scholarship and other information.
- ASB Mazamitla and Guadalajara. Contact Leo Calderón in the Office of Latino Student Affairs at x6013 or calderon@nku.edu for more information.

Honors students have gone on both of these trips in the past, and they are highly recommended!

Closer to home...

Alternative Spring Break to Robinson Forest during the week of March 8-16.

You will spend three days and two nights discovering Robinson Forest, taking a side trip to Lost Mountain and as well as Flint Hill Cemetery. You will also have the opportunity to speak with residents of the area. All for the LOW, LOW price of only $150!

We have already begun accepting applications and the spaces are limited, so we encourage you to apply ASAP.

The deadline for application and a $50 deposit is December 1. The application can be accessed at www.nkubookconnection.com by clicking on the Robinson Forest logo. Contact Jennie LaMothe, Coordinator/Lecturer, First-Year Programs, FH 231, x7559 or lamothej1@nku.edu.

HoHoSeMo is assembled and edited by Rees Storm, HoHoSeMoCo, on the 15th and the 30th of every month. Please contact her with questions regarding this publication at stormr@nku.edu.