

HONORS UPDATES

Weekly announcements for the NKU Honors Program
25 November, 2008

Happy Thanksgiving!

There will be no classes held November 26-28. Everybody have a happy and safe holiday!

Honors Travel Scholarship deadline – Dec 1

People taking trips during winter or spring breaks, must submit the travel scholarship application by Dec 1. Find the application form on the Honors Website, <http://honors.nku.edu/>.

For those interested in the Machu Picchu spring break trip, see Belle Zembrodt, zembrodt@nku.edu.

Honors Capstones, presented on Tues & Wed, Dec 2 & 3 in Budig

The Fall Conference of Honors, where Honors Fellows present their final Capstone Projects, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, December 2-3 beginning at 3:00 pm. There are eight presenters this semester over both days. Whether you're planning to start your capstone soon or are just starting out, attending some or all of the sessions is a great way to familiarize yourself with the process and the format, and helps to support your fellow Fellows. The full details and list of presenters can be found on the Honors web site at <http://honors.nku.edu>.

Honors Capstone Performance, presented on Sun, Dec 14

Bryan Holten will be playing an organ recital on Sunday, December 14, 2008 at 3:00 p.m. The program of earlier music will include compositions by Bach, Buxtehude, F. Couperin, Frescobaldi, Byrd, and Peraza. The performance will last no more than one hour. The recital will be held at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church, located at 8101 Beechmont Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45255, about halfway between I-275 and Five Mile Rd. For more information, call Bryan at (937) 725-5835.

Support HITF's International Community Service Project

HITF will be traveling to Viboritas, Zacatecas, Mexico over Spring Break. The children in this community live in poverty, however they also value education. HITF will be helping stock a school library, set-up sustainable English language programs, and provide equipment for outdoor games. Look for details for a fundraising event in December and save your Christmas money!! For more info contact Kelli Sittason, sittasonk@nku.edu.

And the Winner is...

Congratulations to Jodi Ferner's HNR 101-003 class – American Dreams – for bringing in the most canned goods for the HoHo VoCo canned food drive! They will receive a pizza party at the end of the semester, as well as the satisfaction of doing good for the community.

Honors Spring Fling being planned for May 1, 2009!

Hold the date!
