

HONORS UPDATES

Weekly announcements for the NKU Honors Program
6 January, 2009

Welcome back from your Break!

Take POP 205H THIS Spring – 1st 8 week term – from home!

We have added another section of Honors Intro to Pop Culture for THIS spring semester. It's entirely a web-based course. And, it only lasts the first eight weeks, so you'll have plenty of time to focus on your other courses during the second part of the semester.

It is the same course I teach in person. We'll study The Simpsons, Monopoly, Elvis, College Spring Break, Positive and Negative stereotyping, Romance Novels and Nature vs. Media. Assignments are: 7 2pg. essays and weekly blogging/discussion boards. Oh, and did I mention that you'll be required to watch cartoons, play board games, spend some quiet time in nature, surf the web and look at magazines?

The course counts as a social science gen ed course and also as one of two Honors gen eds. It would be a great option for some of you with very tight schedules, clinicals, practicums, etc. It begins Monday the 12th, so if you have any questions at all, let me know. Oh, and the course is also open to non-honors students (they just register for the regular section with my name) so please also tell your friends! I hope to see many of you soon!

The Office of Orientation and Parent Programs is looking for outstanding student leaders to fill the role of Student Orientation Leader (SOL) for the 2009 school year. As an SOL, you will have the opportunity to welcome new students and their guests/parents to the NKU community. You will assist the Orientation staff with programs, participate in information sessions, facilitate small group discussions, and always convey the spirit and sense of community that is a part of the NKU campus. Remember, the first impression is a lasting one! In addition, this is also a great leadership experience to put on a resume; employers really take note of these types of positions.
