Jeopardy Party! Wed, Feb 11 @ 7:30-10:30 pm in J101 - The Classroom of Honors Wing of Callahan Hall

Join us Wednesday, February 11th for the first ever CaHaHoHa J-Party Night (J representing J-wing, where some honors students call home, and Party as in... well... better than a party)! Those who attend will be split into groups and play a Jeopardy-style game to show off their wits and hopefully learn some new and interesting facts! The first round is "traditional" Jeopardy questions, and the second round is devoted to modern pop culture. There's even a category about NKU! So come check it out! Even if you don't want to play, it would still be fun to just hang out, watch and, of course, eat some snack food.

Hangin' out/snackin' time starts at 7:30 and the J-Party game starts at 8. This activity will be in J101, the Honors classroom where the projector is. See ya there!

Questions?

Just talk to Ashley in J103, pylesa3@nku.edu

Dr. Zaniello lectures at the Taft Museum – Come to a Preview here

"Fashion in Film" is a traveling exhibit stopping at the historic Taft Museum in Cincinnati. It features actual costumes from well-known films like Dangerous Liaisons and Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom. Cool, right? Well, our very own Dr. Z has been asked to give three lectures and film viewings at the Taft in conjunction with the exhibit. These lecture/viewings are FREE and give the public a chance to tour the exhibit FOR FREE the hour before the lecture! Go to the website for more information on the exhibit.

Dr. Zaniello will be giving a preview here at the Honors House in March!

We are also hoping to have a big turnout to support Dr. Z for the April 16 lecture and viewing of Murder on the Orient Express. The lecture begins at 6:00 pm with the viewing beginning at 6:30 pm. The exhibit will be open beforehand for free from 5-6. Go to the Taft Museum of Art website for more information - taftmuseum.org.
