"Previews of Coming Attractions: The Beauty and the Beast"

"Fashion in Film" is a traveling exhibit stopping at the historic Taft Museum in Cincinnati. It features actual costumes from well-known films like Dangerous Liaisons and Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom. Cool, right? Well, our very own Dr. Z has been asked to give three lecture and film viewings at the Taft in conjunction with the exhibit. These lecture/viewings are FREE and give the public a chance to tour the exhibit FOR FREE the hour before the lecture! Go to the website for more information on the exhibit.

Dr. Zaniello will be giving a preview here at NKU on March 18!

We are also hoping to have a big turnout to support Dr. Z for the April 16 lecture and viewing of Murder on the Orient Express. The lecture begins at 6:00 pm with the viewing beginning at 6:30 pm. The exhibit will be open beforehand for free from 5-6. Go to the Taft Museum of Art website for more information - taftmuseum.org.

Students, have you been nominated for an award by a faculty or staff member?
Now is your chance to honor one of them!

The NKU Academic Advising Council is proud to sponsor the 8th annual Outstanding Advisor Awards. We hope you will give serious thought to nominating a person from your department or college who has distinguished themselves in the academic advising arena. This award is very important to those working daily to insure our students have the best advising possible and we hope you will consider nominating that special advisor from your area who has demonstrated the highest standards of academic advising to our students. Thanks so much for your consideration.
