HoHo VolVo Fo Sale-o!

Retiring Director Tom Zaniello's faithful 1997 auto will not be making the trip to Obama City (aka Washington DC) and is available for sale. You may have seen it parked at the HoHo: it has served mainly as a commuter and regional car for years, which explains why it has only 119,000 miles (kinda amazing for a 12-year old car). Here are the details:

1997 Volvo 4-Door Sedan 850

119,000 miles

5-speed (stick) transmission

$3000

Take possession on or about June 1st
