

A Home Water Study

Student Name _____

Coordinates of residence on large scale map _____

Type of residence _____

Number of members in your household _____

Name of street on which you live _____

Estimate the number of houses on the street _____

Estimate the number of residents on the street _____

List any commercial or industrial factors on your street _____

List any additional structures on your street _____

List any natural areas that you are able to identify in your neighborhood _____

Predict the possibility of survival for the inhabitants of your street in the event that existing water supplies are no longer available. You must support your ideas. _____
