Halli Lannan is a survivor. At just 40-years old, Halli has survived the strenuous battle of breast cancer, sexual assault, and discrimination as a butch lesbian. She has persevered when faced with life’s toughest battles, obtaining two master’s degrees, a Ph. D, and advocating for the LGBTQ community and sexual assault survivors. She is recognized as a Tillman Scholar and advocates for LGBTQ youth. Halli works with the Racine Unified School district and she is now married and living with her wife and son in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.
