As Jesus walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. 2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” 3 Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him. 4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” 6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes, 7 saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see. 8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?” 9 Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.” 10 But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?” 11 He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.” 12 They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.” ¶ 13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. 14 Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. 15 Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see.” 16 Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided. 17 So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is a proph-et.” ¶ 18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight 19 and asked them,

"Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" 20 His parents answered,

"We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21 but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who o-pened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for him-self."

22 His parents said this because they were a-fraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the syn-a-gogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him." ¶ 24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glo-ry to God! We know that this man is a sin-ner." 25 He an-swered, "I do not know whether he is a sin-ner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he o-pen your eyes?" 27 He answered them, "I have told you al-ready, and you would not lis-ten. Why do you want to hear it a-gain? Do you also want to be-come his dis-ci-ple-s?” 28 Then they reviled him, say-ing, “You are his dis-ci-ple, but we are dis-ci-ple-s of Mo-ses. 29 We know that God has spo-ken to Mo-ses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from.” 30 The man an-swered, “Here is an as-ton-ish-ing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not lis-ten to sin-ners, but he does listen to one who worships him and o-beys his will. 32 Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do noth-ing.” 34 They an-swered him, “You were born en-tire-ly in sins, and are you try-ing to teach us?” And they drove him out. ¶ 35 Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you be-lieve in the Son of Man?” 36 He an-swered, “And who is he, sir?
Tell me, so that I may believe in him.” 37 Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he.” 38 He said, “Lord, I believe.” And he worshiped him. 39 Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind.” 40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, “Surely we are not blind, are we?” 41 Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, ‘We see,’ your sin remains.
