At supper with his friends, or [After saying this] Jesus was troubled in spirit, and declared,

“Ver-y tru-ly, I tell you, one of you will be-tray me.” 22 The dis-ci-ples looked at one an-oth - er, uncertain of whom he was speak-ing. 23 One of his dis-ci - ples—the one whom Jesus loved—was re-clin-ing next to him; 24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speak-ing. 25 So while re-clin-ing next to Je-sus, he asked him, “Lord, who is it?” 26 Jesus answered,

“It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish.” So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Is-car-i - ot. 27 After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered in-to him. Jesus said to him, “Do quickly what you are go-ing to do.” 28
Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him. 29 Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the festival”; or, that he should give something to the poor. 30 So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night. ¶ 31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. 32 If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once.
