Eucharistic Prayer B

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation, in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disci-ple, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it,

..do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Fa- ther, We re- mem- ber his death, We proclaim his re- sur-rec- tion, We a- wait his com- ing in glo- ry.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all;

pre- senting to you, from your cre- a- tion, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spi- rit up- on these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Bo- dy of Christ and His blood of the New Cov- e- nant. U- nite us to your Son in his sac- ri- fice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.
