Lecture, discussion, and learning activities will be methods of instruction.

Course Resources:

Student Learning Outcomes:

Student learning outcomes include knowledge and application of principles and practices in the psychology of work behavior. Students will develop the ability to comprehend, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate information in the following content areas: work morale, productivity, effective leadership, organizational climate, ethics at work, the diversity challenge, managing complex change, adaptive capacity, performance improvement, and working across cultures.

Methods of Assessing Student Learning:

1) Four exams will be used to assess knowledge, comprehension, and application of the psychology of work behavior.

   1st Quarter Exam includes multiple choice and essay questions = 100 points (Based on text and class discussion)

   2nd Quarter Exam includes multiple choice and essay questions = 100 points (Based on text and class discussion)

   3rd Quarter Exam includes multiple choice and essay questions = 100 points (Based on text and class discussion)

   4th Quarter Exam includes multiple choice and essay questions = 100 points (Based on text and class discussion)

   *Attendance at all exams is required unless extenuating circumstances occur—for example, a serious illness (with a doctor’s excuse). Eligible make-up exams will be given at the final exam period.

2) Individual/Group Presentation = 100 points (October 10, October 12)

   Class presentation on Human Side of Work topics and issues. Examples include communication across cultures, violence in the workplace, and performance management. Evaluation is based upon knowledge, preparation, and quality of presentation.

3) Term Paper = 100 points (15 to 20 pages, typed, double-spaced, minimum 10 sources with no more than three sources from Internet; no .com sources). Assessment is based upon analysis, synthesis, and evaluation of relevant literature on the subject. Due October 14.

Student Requirements:

1) Class attendance and homework assignments are required because of the nature of the course. Two (2) unexcused absences (MWF class) will lower final course grade by one letter grade.

2) Attendance at all exams is required unless extenuating and documented circumstances occur—for example, an accident or serious illness (with a doctor’s excuse). Eligible make-up exams will be given at the final exam period.

All students must meet the same requirements.

NOTE: Students with disabilities (sight, hearing, etc.)—please call this to my attention so assistance can be provided.

NOTE: This syllabus should be viewed as a working plan for the semester. Circumstances may necessitate changes in the plan during the course of the term. Changes will be at the discretion of the instructor in consultation with the class.

NOTE: One core value held by the Department of Psychology is the importance of effective writing. Our expectation for students in Psychology courses is that written assignments be prepared according to accepted college-level standards for English usage, including grammar, punctuation, spelling, sentence structure, and composition. That is, students will be expected to proofread, edit, and correct their own work in these areas prior to submitting assignments for grading and evaluation. Examples of these assignments may include, but are not limited to, research papers, article summaries, group projects, class papers, take-home essay examinations, and independent study projects. Assignments that do not appear to have been proofread, edited, and corrected prior to submission may be returned to the student for revision before grading, at the discretion of the instructor, or may receive a lower grade that reflects the level of writing skills demonstrated. Experience suggests that writing clearly, concisely, and compellingly requires thought and organization. Give yourself time to organize, draft, revise, and proofread. The requirement of using the library/writing lab resources will be assigned during the course of the semester.

Student Honor Code:

The work you will do in this course is subject to the Student Honor Code (http://www.nku.edu/~deanstudents/). The Honor Code is a commitment to the highest degree of ethical integrity in academic conduct, a commitment that, individually and collectively, the students of NKU will not lie, cheat, or plagiarize to gain an academic advantage over fellow students or avoid academic requirements.

INSTRUCTOR AND COURSE EVALUATIONS

Northern Kentucky University takes Instructor and Course Evaluations very seriously. It is an important responsibility of NKU students as citizens of the University to participate in the instructor and course evaluation process. During the two weeks* prior to the end of each semester classes, you will be asked to reflect upon what you have learned in this course, the extent to which you have invested the necessary effort to maximize your learning, and the role your instructor has played in the learning process. It is very important that you complete the online evaluations with thoughtfully written comments.

Starting Spring semester 2011, the students who complete an evaluation for a particular course (or opt out of doing so in the evaluation) will be rewarded for their participation by having access to their course grade as soon as that grade is submitted by the instructor. On the other hand, any student who does not complete the course evaluation (or opt out of doing so in the evaluation) should expect to incur a two week delay in access to his or her course grade beyond the university's official date for grade availability.

To complete online evaluations go to http://eval.nku.edu. Click on "student login" and use the same USERNAME and PASSWORD as used on campus.

*Eight-week classes will be given one week before classes end to complete evaluations.
