

ETHICS: FIRE IN A DARK WORLD

This is a practical and personalized workshop, dealing with the following topics – moral dilemmas, ethical roots, levels of morality, personal and social dynamics of ethical choice, and the critical role of leadership. Participants will evaluate personal and professional values, and clarify ethical views in learning exercises. This experience will allow for a better understanding of the values and ethical views of other people.

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

- Introduction – What is Ethics?
- Moral Dilemmas – No Easy Subject
- The Roots of Ethics
- Levels of Morality
- Ethics “at work” Yesterday and Today
- Personal and Social Values
- Full-Swing Leadership
- The Importance of Courage

Faculty: George Manning, Professor of Psychology and Business at Northern Kentucky University, is internationally known as a speaker, author of eleven books, and consultant to business, industry and government. His client’s include AT&T, AMA, IBM, GE, Marriott, UAW, IRS, and the National Institutes of Health, among others. George’s unique approach and magic for connecting with people includes a blend of humor, interesting facts, and practical applications. His warm, personal style has captivated audiences from coast to coast and from continent to continent. He was selected Professor of the Year at Northern Kentucky University and has received the Strongest Influence Award given by the Northern Kentucky University Alumni Association.