GROUP TWO TAXA continued

10. Scout Order Amphipods. 1/4", white to gray, body longer than it is wide, swim sideways, more than 6 legs, resembles small shrimp.

11. Alderfly Larva. Family Simulidae. 1" long. Looks like small hellgrammite but has a long, thin, branched tail at back end (no hook). No gill tufts undermesh.

12. Fairy lantern. Family Corydalidae. Up to 1 1/2" long. Looks like small hellgrammite but often a lighter reddish-brown color, or with yellowish scales. No gill tufts undermesh.

13. Damselfly Suborder Zygoptera. 1/2" - 1", large eyes, 6 thin, hooked legs, 3 small oval-shaped tails, positioned like a tripod, smooth (no gills) on sides of lower half of body. (See arrow.)

15. Crane Fly Suborder Hemiptera. 1/3" - 2", milky, green, or light brown, plump caterpillar-like segmented body, 4 finger-like lobes at back end.

17. Dragon Fly Suborder Anisoptera. 1/2" - 2", large eyes, 6 hooked legs. Wide oval to round abdomen.

GROUP THREE TAXA

Pollution tolerant organisms can be in any quality of water.

18. Aquatic Worm. Class Oligochaetae. 1/4" - 2", can be very long, thin worm-like body.

